New Parishioners

We welcome new members to the Parish of St. Paul and St. Agnes! Located in one of Brooklyn's most vibrant neighborhoods, our parish of two historic churches brings together people from diverse backgrounds into one community rooted in the Gospel. We hope you will discover at the Parish of St. Paul and St. Agnes a welcoming home where, nourished by Word and Sacrament, you can grow in the love of Christ. We invite you to join us for Mass in English, Spanish or French and consider the parish your own oasis of peace, calm and mercy. All parishioners are encouraged to register and use church envelopes in order to maintain our parish of two churches.

Religious Education (CCD)

Sundays after the 9:15AM Mass in St. Agnes.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK:

Please come and visit St. Francis Xavier School during our Catholic Schools Week Open House on January 31, 2016. The week-long Catholic Schools Week celebration will begin at the 12noon liturgy with our students participating in the different ministries. We then invite you to come over to the school and see what makes St. Francis Xavier School so special. Open House will be held immediately following Mass from 1:00pm until 2:30p.m. Members of our student body and our Parent-Teacher Committee (PTC) will be providing tours for any new guests to St. Francis Xavier School. More information will follow about the upcoming events of Catholic Schools Week, but we wanted you to plan on attending Open House Sunday, January 31, 2016 from 1:00-2:30p.m.

We educate for excellence and together we learn to become Disciples of Christ.

TITHING ENVELOPES:

If you have not as yet picked up your box of tithing envelopes for 2016, they are on the table in front of St. Paul and in the memorial room in St. Agnes, they are in alphabetical order according to last name. Please pick them up now, if your box is not there please fill out a white card and Christine will make sure that yours is there for next weekend.

THE FEAST OF ST. AGNES:

St. Agnes is one of the “virgin martyrs” of the church of Rome. She is one of seven women, in addition to the Blessed Virgin Mary, who are mentioned in the Roman Canon of the Mass (Eucharistic Prayer I). Saints Felicity, Perpetua, Agatha, Lucy, Cecilia, and Anastasia are the other six. Agnes is a patron saint of chastity, gardeners, girls, Girl Scouts, engaged couples and victims of rape. Agnes viewed the integrity of her physical body as synonymous with the purity of her faith, her purpose, her self-determination, her honor.

One of the traditions associated with Saint Agnes is that on the Feast of Saint Agnes, two lambs who have been raised at the local Trappist Monastery of Tre Fontane, are brought to the Basilica of Saint Agnes Outside the Walls and are blessed. The lambs are raised into sheep by the Benedictine Sisters of Cecilia in Trastavere (a section of Rome near the Vatican). The sheep are sheered each year on Holy Thursday. The wool from these lambs is then woven into material that is used to make around 12 pallia. The pallia are placed near the tomb of Saint Peter on June 28, the vigil of the Feast of Saints Peter and Paul where they remain overnight. The pallia are then kept for future use in the “niche of the pallia” in a confessional near the tomb of Saint Peter.

PRO LIFE MASS AND MARCH:

Will be March 19th in St. Paul at 7:30am
Please join us!

YEAR OF MERCY:

How can we show others the mercy of God?
We say that God is compassionate, but we ignore the poor.
We say that God loves us and has mercy on us, but we hold grudges against our friends. Our actions need to authentically reflect God's mercy.

The Jubilee Year of Mercy has begun. Go to osv.com/yom to install the free 365 days to mercy app and explore the many kinds of works of mercy and how you can live them in your daily life.

“Gaze...attentively on mercy so that we may become a more effective sign of the Father's action in our lives.”
- Pope Francis
