CONFIRMATION:

Next Sunday, Pentecost Sunday, we will celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit Upon the church (the birthday of the church) and we will celebrate the sacrament of Confirmation

At the 9:15 am mass at St. Agnes. Pews will be reserved with the names of those to be confirmed and their families.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION:

Our children in Sunday school have been preparing to receive Jesus for the first time on Sunday, May 22nd at the 9:15 am mass. Once again, pews will be reserved for them and their families. Plan to be with us to rejoice with the little ones whom Jesus loves in a very special way.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL:

This year we will begin the "Generations of Faith" campaign for The diocese and our 2 churches. We will not receive pledge appeals for the Bishop's appeal this year. It will be included in the pledges that we will be asked to make to the "Generations of Faith" campaign. Next year, we will receive the Bishop's appeal pledge forms again. MORE TO COME...

YOUTH MINISTRY:

We are hoping to initiate a youth group and a young adult group here in our parish. But before we do, we are open to ideas and suggestions to initiate these ministries. Please feel free to contact our youth minister Laura @ stpaulandstagnes@gmail.com to express your thoughts and suggestions.

TO BE A MOTHER... "To be a mother is a great treasure. Mothers, in their unconditional and sacrificial love for their children, are the antidote to individualism; they are the greatest enemies against war," Mothers, are often exploited because of their availability. Not even the Christian community values them properly, despite the eminent example of the Mother of Jesus. "Mary's example provides an opportunity for the Church to reflect on the role of all mothers in society and the Church, despite all of the "symbolic glorification" we give to motherhood, it is still under-valued. "All of us give credit to our mothers for life and many other things, but not always are they listened to or helped in everyday life... Their important contribution to the life of society, their daily sacrifices and their aspirations are not always properly appreciated." To be a mother is a gift, and "In this sense motherhood is more than childbearing; it is a life choice entailing sacrifice, respect This maternal martyrdom, consists of a mother's ability to offer herself in silence, prayer and total surrender, "without any fanfare," to her motherly duties. A mother's sensitivity "to all that threatens human life and welfare is a source of enrichment for society and the Church". It is common in moments of difficulty to encounter the tenderness, dedication and moral strength of our mothers. "It is they, mothers, who often give the first roots of the faith, the ones that permeate deepest; without them not only would the faithful be lost, but also a good part of the deepest fire of our faith," Join me in thanking all mothers "for what they are and for all that they give to the Church and to our world," – Pope Francis
