Stewardship—You decide what to Give..

The percentage of your income given to God is for you to decide. A common suggestion is that 4% of your income goes for parish support; 1% to the Bishop's Annual Appeal; 5% for other charitable work. If everyone gives in proportion to his/her means, using a percentage formula, then everyone's gift is equal, regardless of income. When we consider that we usually leave a 15% tip after a meal in a restaurant, setting aside 10% of our income in gratitude to God is not extravagant. Stewardship reminds us that our gift to God through the parish must entail some sacrifice—that is, it must be more than we would first think of giving or more than we first think we can afford—it is not what we have left over from what we've spent on ourselves. Our giving back to God a portion of His blessings should hurt just a little bit, otherwise it is not a sacrifice.

STEP UP TO THE PLATE:

Father's Day is Sunday, June 19th and we would like to ask the help of the men of our parish to donate baby items, as the women did on Mother's Day, to help our Mother Theresa's Sisters who care for mothers and their babies.

Too often, the fathers have disappeared and leave the women to care for themselves and their babies without their help. Please bring new baby items and place them in front of the altar or if you do not want to go shopping, write a check instead, please make it out to "Missionaries of Charity" and the Sisters will buy what is needed.

Pray without ceasing – not just when you want to,
Pope says...

For Pope Francis, prayer is neither a "magic wand" used to get what we want nor something casual we do only when we feel like it, but is rather the strength that sustains our faith in difficult moments. "Jesus says that we need 'to pray always, without growing tired,'" Pope said. What that means is that "it's not just praying sometimes, when I feel like it. No. "Everyone experiences moments of fatigue and discouragement, especially when it seems like our prayer seems ineffective," he said, but assured that "God answers his children promptly, even if it means he does it in times and ways other than what we would like. He continued his catechesis on mercy as understood in scripture, focusing on the parable of the unjust judge from the Gospel of Luke. The parable recounts how a dishonest, indifferent judge is swayed by the constant requests of a widow, who insistently pleads for justice. In the end, the judge concedes due to the widow's frequent appeals. Now the judge in the parable represents a "powerful persona" responsible for passing judgement according to the Law of Moses. Pope Francis noted that it was precisely because of the widow's perseverance that she achieved her goal in the end. Even the judge admits that he grants her justice "so that she doesn't constantly come to pester me," rather than out of genuine mercy. The Pope stressed that if the widow was able to bend the unjust judge with her "insistent demands," then "how much more will God, who is a good and just father, 'make justice for his elect who cry out to him day and night.'"

Por favor de traer artículos nuevos para bebés y depositalos delante del altar. Si no quieres ir de compras, por favor, escribe un cheque a "Missionaries of Charity" y las Hermanas comprarán lo necesario. Gracias!
