BAPTISM:

Please do not wait until it's almost time for your baby to walk to church to be baptized. When the children are a few months old, they get scared and begin to cry and it becomes a bad experience, not only for the child, but for the adults as well.

Please don't delay because you can't find Godparents or because you are trying to find a place for a party. You were pregnant for 9 months and had plenty of time to make proper arrangements. Once you receive the child's birth certificate, you should begin to plan for the baptism by calling the church for an appointment with Father.

STEP UP TO THE PLATE:

Father's Day is Sunday, June 19th and we would like to ask the help of the men of our parish to donate baby items, as the women did on Mother's Day, to help our Mother Theresa's Sisters who care for mothers and their babies.

Too often, the fathers have disappeared and leave the women to care for themselves and their babies without their help. Please bring new baby items and place them in front of the altar or if you do not want to go shopping, write a check instead, please make it out to "Missionaries of Charity" and the Sisters will buy what is needed.

YOUNG ADULTS:

Are you a young adult between 21-39 and feel misunderstood & alone? Well, you are not alone. Come and join us for our young adult group. For more information please call the rectory 718-625-1717 or email stpaulandstagnes@gmail.com

EVERY FAMILY NEEDS A FATHER -- a father who shares in his family's joy and pain, hands down wisdom to his children and offers them firm guidance and love, Pope Francis said. Being a father is not easy since it takes lots of patience and grace, he said. "But what consolation, what a reward one receives when the children honor this legacy. It is a joy that more than makes up for the hard work, that overcomes every misunderstanding and heals every wound," The most important is being present, first by being by his wife's side "to share everything, joy and pain, hard work and hope" and by being there for his children as they grow, he said. A father is there for his kids "when they play and when they work hard, when they are playful and when they are distressed, when they are communicative and when they are taciturn, when they are daring and when they are afraid, when they have strayed and when they have found their way again," he said. However, being present "is not the same as being controlling, you know, because fathers who are too controlling suffocate their children and don't let them grow," the pope said. A father knows how to firmly correct children's mistakes without demeaning or demoralizing them, as well as protect them at all costs, the pope said. Guidance does not come from a father who is "weak, yielding and a softie," he said. But a good father also knows how to forgive sincerely from the heart and be patient and merciful, like the father in the Gospel account of the prodigal son, he said. "How much dignity and how much tenderness in that father who is waiting by the door," waiting for the child who has strayed, he said. "Yes, fathers must be patient. So many times there's nothing left to do but wait, pray and wait with patience, tenderness, magnanimity and mercy." A parent finds pride not in having the child "be the same as me, who repeats what I say and what I do, " but when the child has received the wisdom and values that really matter in life.
