I express my closeness to the families of the victims and those injured in all terrorist attacks. Let us pray for them, those who died, and ask the Lord to convert the hearts of the violent blinded by hatred.— Pope Francis

Thank you!:

Bishop DiMarzio wants to thank everyone who was involved in making last Sunday's French mass so prayerful and reverential as we came together to pray for the victims of the terrorist attack on Nice, France. He was quite moved by the care and concern of the members of St. Agnes and St. Paul for our brothers and sisters in France. He thanks the borough President Eric Adams for sending a representative from his office and Assemblyman Eugene from East Flatbush for their attendance and support. He also thanks Father Johannes from Visitation in Redhook and Father Jose from St. Charles Borromeo for concelebrating the mass.

Thank you!:

A special thank you to Monsignor Massie, our Dean, for celebrating the 11 am mass at St Paul's so that Father Nugent could be present with our Bishop at St. Agnes for the 11 am mass. We also thank Deacon Felix Mejia for preaching in Spanish at the 11 am mass at St. Paul's.

Generations of Faith:

We have officially joined with the rest of the diocese in the "Generations of Faith" campaign to raise $80 million. Bishop DiMarzio would like to raise $30 million to help take care of those priests who have given their lives in service and who are now senior, retired and some of them sickly. He would like to raise an additional $10 million for ministry to our youth- the future of the church. The additional $40 million will come back to the parishes to take care of delayed maintenance in the churches. Our goal is $500,000.00 and thanks to a handful of our members, we have already received pledges in the amount of $300,586.00. Everyone will be asked to be generous and sacrifice for this worthy cause. Our Deacon Leroy thinks we can raise 1 million for St. Paul & St. Agnes.

Expreso mi cercanía a los familiares de las víctimas y de los heridos en los atentados terroristas. Oremos juntos por ellos y por los difuntos; y pidamos al Señor que convierta el corazón de los violentos cegados por el odio.

J'exprime ma proximité aux familles des victimes et des blessés des attentats terroristes. Prions ensemble pour eux, pour les défunts et demandons au Seigneur de convertir le coeur des violents aveuglés par la haine.
