*Stop being wishy-washy: give all for Jesus who is the greatest prize.
We have to avoid making gods out of our possessions and remember we can't take 'things' with us when we die. Jesus reminds us that we must be rich in what matters to God. Teach others about God ~ Help others to do what is right ~ Comfort the suffering ~ Be patient with everyone ~ Pray for the living and the dead ~ Forgive wrongs*

Identify with Success!

We are well on our way to reaching the Deacon Leroy Branch, Jr. goal of one million dollars in our Generations of faith campaign to help senior and infirm priests, the youth of our diocese, and to address some of the deferred maintenance issues at both St Paul and St Agnes churches. So far we have $389,899.00. When you are invited to make a pledge, please do so generously and Sacrificially.
Remember, the pledge is payable (doable)
over a five year period.

Sunday School:

We spent more than expected for our Sunday school program so we are forced to reevaluate our fee schedule and will let you know as soon as we arrive at a realistic figure.
Everything has gone up! We currently use the children's tithes, fees, and sacramental fees to cover expenses
but have found out it is not enough.

Catholic Charities gets into the Thanksgiving spirit!

We offer many volunteer opportunities for Individuals, Groups and Corporations.
Call 718.722.6175 to customize a volunteer opportunity just for you.
