Thank You:

Last Saturday's Bar-B-Que and outdoor mass went well thanks to all of you who worked it. A very special thanks to Jean Jacques from "Provence en Boite" on Smith and DeGraw. If you are passing by or having a meal there, please thanks Jean Jacques for providing the tents which protected us from the sun and for the delicious food and pastries he sent for all of us to enjoy.

Our Honoree:

Our very own Deacon Leroy Branch, Jr. has been chosen by the Black Vicariate of our diocese to receive the "Shining Star" award at the Migration office dinner on Friday, October 21st at Gargiulo's restaurant in Coney Island. If you would like to attend, tickets are $ 150.00 per person. Please let Deacon know ahead of time so he can get you a ticket. Tickets must be paid for up front.

Vacation Time:

We hope you had an enjoyable summer and want to remind you that, while you were away, the bills kept coming. We hope and pray that you will catch up on your tithes for while you were away. A reminder - we cannot pay our bills with foreign coins! Last weekend's coins jammed up the coin counting machines with foreign coins which all had to be thrown out. Save us the trouble and dispose of them yourselves before you come to church.

Disaster Aid:

The Bishop has informed us that he would like a special collection taken up on 2 succeeding Sunday's (to be announced) to help with the devastation from the floods in New Orleans and the earthquake in Italy. More to come.....

Identify with Success!

We are well on our way to reaching the Deacon Leroy Branch, Jr. goal of one million dollars in our Generations of faith campaign to help senior and infirm priests, the youth of our diocese, and to address some of the deferred maintenance issues at both St Paul and St Agnes churches. So far we have $411,166.00. When you are invited to make a pledge, please do so generously and Sacrificially. Remember, the pledge is payable (doable) over a five year period.

pacto contigo. Te necesito. Sálvame, una vez más, Señor; llévame una vez más en su abrazo redentora". --Papa Francisco*
