New Parishioners:

We welcome new members to the Parish of St. Paul and St. Agnes! Located in one of Brooklyn's most vibrant neighborhoods, our parish of two historic churches brings together people from diverse backgrounds into one community rooted in the Gospel. We hope you will discover at the Parish of St. Paul and St. Agnes a welcoming home where, nourished by Word and Sacrament, you can grow in the love of Christ. We invite you to join us for Mass in English, Spanish or French and consider the parish your own oasis of peace, calm and mercy. All parishioners are encouraged to register and use church envelopes in order to maintain our parish of two churches.

Rejoice!

We rejoice with the Missionaries of Charity as we Celebrate Mother Teresa's elevation to Sanctity. The sisters serve our diocese praying for all of us (contemplative community) at Our Lady of Lourdes Convent in Bushwick and offering women who find themselves pregnant and in need that made the choice of life for their babies by caring for the mothers and babies in the convent at Our Lady of Victory church in Bedford-Stuyvesant (active community). Let us pray to Saint Teresa of Calcutta that she may make us more aware of Jesus as he presents himself to us in the needs of the poorest of the poor and that we may respond to him in them by works of charity.

Vacation Time:

We hope you had an enjoyable summer and want to remind you that, while you were away, the bills kept coming. We hope and pray that you will catch up on your tithes for while you were away. A reminder - we cannot pay our bills with foreign coins! Foreign coins jam up the coin counting machines so they get thrown out.

Save us the trouble and dispose of them yourselves before you come to church.

Identify with Success!

We are well on our way to reaching the Deacon Leroy Branch, Jr. goal of one million dollars in our Generations of faith campaign to help senior and infirm priests, the youth of our diocese, and to address some of the deferred maintenance issues at both St Paul and St Agnes churches. So far we have $411,166.00. When you are invited to make a pledge, please do so generously and Sacrificially. Remember, the pledge is payable (doable) over a five year period.

*The shape was oddly identifiable in the blasted wreckage of the World Trade Center, standing upright amid beams bent like fork tines and jagged, pagan-seeming tridents. A grief-exhausted excavator found it on Sept. 13, 2001, two days after the terrorist attacks. A few days later, he spoke to a Franciscan priest named Father Brian Jordan, who was blessing remains at Ground Zero. "Father, you want to see God's House?" he asked. "Look over there." Father Brian peered through the fields of shredded metal. "What am I looking for?" he asked. "Just keep looking, Father, and see what you see."
"Oh my God," Father Brian said. "I see it." As Father Brian stared, other rescue workers gathered around him. There was a long moment of silence as he beheld what he considered to be a sign. Against seeming insuperable odds, a 17-foot-long crossbeam, weighing at least two tons, was thrust at a vertical angle in the hellish wasteland. Like a cross. Ever since the two jets had slammed into the twin towers on Sept. 11, leaving 2,753 dead, Father Brian had been asked by countless New Yorkers, "Why did God do this?" He would reply tartly, in his Brooklyn-born accent: "It had nuttin' to do with God.
This was the actions of men who abused their free will." Now here was God explaining Himself. It was a revelation, proof that "God had not abandoned Ground Zero," even as the awful excavations continued. "Father, they might put this in some dump heap." "No," Father Brian said. "No, they will not."
Instead, as the anniversary of the attacks nears, the "World Trade Cross" continues to occupy a central if controversial place at Ground Zero. Shortly after its discovery, Father Brian persuaded city officials to allow a crew of volunteer union laborers to lift it out of the wreckage by crane and mount it on a concrete pedestal. They placed it in a quiet part of the site, on Church Street, where Father Brian blessed it with the prayer of St. Bonaventure.
"May it ever compass Thee, seek Thee, find Thee, run to Thee..."*
