Sunday School Advent Project:

Beginning on the first Sunday of Advent November 27th the children from our CCD program will begin a special time of giving to others. Brother Tom Barton OSF from CHIPS (Christian Help in Park Slope) has contacted us with a special request. CHIPS (Sackett & 4th Ave.) is our local soup kitchen that feeds those in need in our area.

As well as the many meals they serve, as the weather turns colder clients are often in need of heavy socks. Our children will be bringing in NEW socks (both for women and men) throughout the Sundays of Advent. Any parishioner who would like to add to our "collection" can drop off socks at the parish offices.

Generations of Faith

The Generations of Faith Capital Campaign is an extraordinary endeavor designed to ensure the long term ability of the Church in Brooklyn and Queens. If you have not already made a pledge, we hope you will. Think about it this way: Can you make a sacrifice of $20, $30, or $50 a month (equal to $1, $2, or $3 dollars a day) to help meet the long-term needs of our parish? Can we count on you to share our hope and vision for the future? I pray you will help according to your means. Remember: God loves a cheerful giver. Thank you, and may God bless you for your generosity to the diocese and to your parish.

"Whoever seeks to preserve his life will lose it, but whoever loses it will save it." How many dreams for our life have we fought to preserve, never realizing the blessing God has for us had we been willing to surrender to His plan for our life. What are your dreams? Have you asked God lately if these are the same ones He has for you? Thy Will be done. So easy to pray but not so easy to always mean or accept. When was the last time you sought for God to reveal His Will for you?

Save The Date!...
