*We heard in the first reading from Isaiah:
"Share your bread with the hungry, shelter the oppressed and the homeless; clothe the naked when you see them, and do not turn your back on your own."
Then your light shall break forth like the dawn," Our* light should shine by caring for those who need us. When we perform charitable actions, we are beacons of the Light of Christ that has come into the world. We have a responsibility to let others see this light of Christ, and through this light find their way out of darkness and despair. Meaning — the reason why we help others in not just for sake of helping others — not just for the poor to have their physical and worldly needs met — but the ultimate goal is that by helping those in need- out of darkness and despair — they will find their way to love — to fulfillment — and Encounter Christ...so they can love God.
