Thank You!
Your Easter gifts are certainly generous and you can see from all the work going on at St Agnes where your gifts will go.

Thank You:

Holy week liturgies were beautiful. Thanks to Father Willy, Father Paul, Father Alex, Deacon Leroy, Robinson, our English, Spanish, and French choirs. Our churches are beautiful thanks to YOU for your generous flower donations and to our decorating committees under the leadership of Joe and Helen Acosta at St Paul's and Joanie O'Brien and her hard working committee at St Agnes, and to Leon and William for cleaning both churches.

Annual Catholic Appeal:

When you receive your invitations to help our Bishop support all of the services of our diocese, please pause, pray and ask God "How much should I give"; listen to Him tell you to be generous; make your pledge and then make good on it. Remember, all overage comes right back home so we can continue to make St Paul and St Agnes even more beautiful and we can be proud to be members.

EMBODYING FORGIVENESS..

In just a few verses, we see that the disciples received not only a new perspective on suffering, but a new energy and a new task in their lives. Their new energy, Jesus' very breath, is the Holy Spirit. Their new task, given in the same breath, is to embody God's forgiveness and proclaim this forgiveness to all. When Jesus appeared to them, he didn't castigate them for their abandonment and betrayal of him just days before. Jesus gave them the peace of being forgiven. He gave the Holy Spirit, so to forgive others. The experience of being forgiven and forgiving others is at the heart of the Gospel. Jesus came to proclaim and to manifest God's desire to reconcile with God's very sons and daughters, us human beings. God is always working toward reconciliation and rejoices when any broken relationship is healed. When we accept forgiveness from God or from others, we are letting God into our hearts. When we forgive others or ourselves, we are participating in God's work.
