Annual Catholic Appeal:

Thank you to the 77 parishioners who have already sent in their pledges to our goal of $ 46,825.00. Everything over goal comes right back to St. Paul and St. Agnes. If you have not made a pledge yet please do so ASAP. There are extra pledge envelopes by the front of both churches.

Volunteers Needed

We are starting a volunteer outreach program to visit the elderly living alone and the homebound of all ages. "Witnesses of Mercy" under the Catholic Charities Office of Mission will provide training for volunteers. Contact Christine at the parish offices to sign up 718-624-3425.

Today, we are careful never to come into contact with blood unless protected by gloves, masks, and goggles. In the reading from Exodus, however, Moses dramatically splashes blood all over the altar and the people assembled for worship. Blood is the sign of God's covenant with the Israelites, a powerful bond between Creator and creature. Sprinkling blood on God's people connects them with the life force of the Lord. The reading from Hebrews shows how God remains faithful to the ancient covenant of blood, perfecting it in the bloody death of Jesus. Mercifully, Jesus' sacrifice on the cross put an end to the bloodshed. Our Eucharistic celebration is an unbloody sacrifice. As we participate in the liturgy, we share in the new covenant Jesus gives us, recorded in our reading from Mark's Gospel: "Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it."
