Second Collection:

The southern state of Kerala in India is suffering its worst monsoon flooding in a century, with more than one million people displaced, and more than 400 reported deaths in the past weeks. Weeks of heavy rainfall have caused dams to open their floodgates, triggered landslides in the mountains, and swamped the coastal regions of Kerala. Only in recent days have floodwaters begun to recede, allowing more access for aid workers and rescuers to reach the devastated areas. In an effort to give aid and support to our brothers and sisters in need in India. All parishes in Brooklyn will take up a second collection. Please continue to pray for these people and please be generous in the help that you give to them.
